C. Teenager: Age 14 to 18

Parents shall continue to follow the established schedule, but make reasonable accommodation for the teenager's participation in academic, athletic, extracurricular and social activities or employment.

As a result, the teenager may spend less than equal time with one parent.

D. Conflicting Schedules Due to Ages of Children

If parents have children who fit into two or more parenting time schedules, the parents shall agree on which schedule to follow or present the issue to the Court by motion for a determination.

E. Summer Schedule

During summer break from school, parents shall follow the standard parenting schedule.

Each parent is responsible for any daycare, babysitting or supervision expenses during the exercise of their extended summer companionship, unless parents have already arranged, and agreed upon, daycare, babysitting, or supervisory providers. Any parent taking a vacation with the child(ren) shall do so during their week of companionship.

Summer school necessary for the child(ren) to pass to the next grade, or as recommended by the appropriate school official, must be attended, and official notice of such requirement must be shared between the parents. In the event a parent elects to exercise their companionship time during summer school, they shall be responsible to make sure that the child(ren) attends summer school as necessary.

F. Spring Break and Winter Break

Parents shall continue to follow their established schedule, and no changes are needed unless a parent is taking a vacation with the child(ren).

G. Vacation

Absent special circumstances, starting at the age of 2, each parent is entitled to two 7-day periods of uninterrupted vacation time with the child(ren) each year. Neither parent shall schedule their vacation time to receive more than 11 total consecutive days of parenting time when combined with the parent's standard companionship time. This vacation time can occur in the summer or spring break for school-aged children, or at any time for younger children. The parent wishing to take vacation time with the child(ren) must notify the other parent at least 45 days before the proposed vacation dates. This vacation time shall not interfere with school schedules. For any vacation travel, each parent must provide the other parent with information about the destination, times of arrival and departure, and method of travel.

In case of a conflict in schedules, Parent 1's choice shall prevail in even-numbered years, and Parent 2's choice shall prevail in odd-numbered years. Vacations shall not conflict with the holiday schedule.

Vacations take precedence over the normal weekly schedule but not holidays or days of special meaning.

H. Days of Special Meaning

Child's Birthday: The child's birthday shall be spent with the parent who has regularly scheduled parenting time on that day.

Mother's Day and Father's Day: Unless otherwise agreed, Mother's Day shall always be spent with the mother, and Father's Day shall always be spent with the father. Unless otherwise agreed, the time shall be from 9:00AM to 8:00PM. The children shall spend the rest of the weekend with the parent who would otherwise be entitled to companionship that weekend under these rules.

Mother's Day and Father's Day shall take precedence and priority over the standard schedule and vacations.

I. Holiday Parenting Time

Parents are encouraged to modify holiday companionship by agreement to reflect the customs and traditions of their family.

Holiday	Even-Numbered Years	Odd-Numbered Years	Times

The holiday schedule takes precedence over the normal weekly schedule and vacations.

II. Rules Governing Parenting Time

A. Exchanges and Transportation

The parent completing his or her parenting time shall be responsible for taking the children to the exchange location and shall not be required to wait longer than 30 minutes for the other parent to appear.

B. Illness

The parents are expected to follow the parenting time schedule despite any illness of a child, unless both parents agree that this would not be medically advisable. Medications and instructions for special care shall travel with the child. A child who is confined to bed rest pursuant to a doctor's instructions is presumed too ill for parenting time exchanges to take place. Any parenting time that is missed due to the illness of a child shall be made up the following week or as the parties may mutually agree.

C. Telephone/Email contact/other phone or computer communication (snapchat, texting, etc.)

Each parent shall encourage reasonable communication between the child(ren) and the other parent, and shall not do anything to impede or restrict that communication.

The non-residential parent's choice of vacation has priority over the residential parent's choice, unless the residential parent has given prior notice of a vacation or other special plans.

Each parent must provide the other parent with destination, times of arrival and departure, method of travel, together with emergency telephone or contact numbers, if any extended vacation will be taken away from that parent's residence.

The non-residential parent shall not schedule vacation or parenting time for the week before school starts.

The residential parent shall be responsible for picking up the child or otherwise arranging transportation at the end of the non-residential parent's parenting time. Each parent shall encourage reasonable communication between the child(ren) and the other parent, and shall not do anything to impede or restrict that communication.

Medications and instructions for special care shall travel with the child. A child who is confined to bed rest pursuant to a doctor's instructions is presumed too ill for parenting time exchanges to take place. Any parenting time that is missed due to the illness of a child shall be made up the following week or as the parties may mutually agree.

ORC § 3121.53.

Any payment of money by or on behalf of the person responsible for the support payments under the support order, that is not made to the CSPC in accordance with the support order, shall be deemed to be a gift and will not be considered as support. ORC § 3121.45.

FAYETTE COUNTY PROBATE/JUVENILE COURT
PUBLIC RECORDS REQUEST POLICY

Public access to court records is governed by the Rules of Superintendence, Rules 44-47, promulgated by the Supreme Court of Ohio. It is the policy of the Fayette County Common Pleas Court, Juvenile and Probate Divisions, to adhere to said rules and any amendments thereto. Further, certain records are required to remain confidential which are identified in the Ohio Rules of Juvenile Procedure and the Ohio Revised Code. This court is further mindful of Sup. Rule 26 with respect to Court Records Management and Retention. Any denial of a public records request for good cause will be accompanied by a written explanation.

All public record requests may be reduced to writing, either by paper or email format. A request should be specific in nature with sufficient clarity to allow the court to identify, retrieve, and review the records (ie. name of defendant or plaintiff, case number, case type, time frame, specific documents requested). The request should further provide the name and contact information of the requestor, and date on which the request is made.

Copies of public records will be available within a reasonable period of time. "Reasonable" takes into account the volume of records requested; the proximity of the location where the records are stored; the accessibility of the records; and the necessity for any legal review of the records requested. Each request will be evaluated to determine an estimated length of time required to gather the records. All requests for public records will either be satisfied or be acknowledged in writing by the court within five (5) business days following the court's receipt of the request. If a request is deemed significantly beyond "routine", such as seeking a voluminous number of copies or requiring extensive research, the acknowledgement will include the following: 1) an estimated number of business days it will take to satisfy the request; 2) an estimated cost of copies requested with deposit required; and, 3) any items within the request that may be exempt from disclosure.

Those seeking copies of public records will be charged only the cost of making copies as stated in Juvenile Local Rule 3K or Probate Local Rule 6B. The requestor may also request that documents be mailed to them in which case the requestor will be charged the cost of all page copies, plus the actual cost of the postage and mailing supplies to be paid in advance prior to mailing.
